I will pray for you
We don't walk alone

I promise you that one day you'll be set free from your skin
But for now you're here with me
I'm tired of hating me skin, hating myself
Sometimes I want to die
Sometimes I want too much
But for now, you're here with me

Chorus:
I am so stupid
I can't see the love you have for me
I am just a man
I am just a man

All you've given me is confusion
I don't want to continue any more
But I have to push for you
And the ones that I love
I have to push for the ones I love
The ones I love will be left with me for eternity
I have to push for the ones that I love

Chorus

I know there is a plan that will work

I'm going to be okay
Cos I'm doing it for the ones I love...

LOVE
LOVE.....
