From the sound of approaching footsteps,
I got scared that it wasn't you,
I had heard about the thing that happened,
Still I hoped that it wasn't true

But there in the dark,
Voices called out.
Someones me

Have you heard about the city voices?
Voices that tell you,
Secrets

You're eyes told of a million memories,
You're my spooke of a million things,
I,
Said you are cool,
You said no,
I asked you why,
You said:

Don't trust the city voices,
Voices,
That fill you,
With lies.

You said:

Don't trust the city voices,
Voices,
That fill you,
With lies.
