We are the defenders of jazz ballet

People say, when they see us:

Hey folks! It's the saviors of jazz ballet

Fearless heroes of kick and spin

Baby, hear as they come

Climbing up som black and dying tree

Every night peacefully set the world on fire

Every nigh I hear the red parade

Say we, by command of the microphone

Such is our conviction

Make way for the saviours of jazz ballet

Hollow hearts make for pleasant lives
