In me, It's slowly getting cold
How long can we both be here together
Stay here, The shadows want to get me
But when we go, we only go together
You are everything I am
And everything that's running through my veins
Always, will we be together
No matter where we go, no matter how deep

I won't be alone there
Lets stay together
In the night
Some day when it's time
We'll be together
In the night
I hear when you quietly cry
Notice every single time you breathe
And then, if the fates should end it now
We share exactly what comes there after

Repeat *

In the night at sometime
In the night together with you
Stop me or I'll be, alone in the night
Come along and stop me
Or I'll be carried away alone in the night
You are everything I am
And everything that's running through my veins
