In me
it is slowly getting cold how long could we be here together Stay here
the shadows want to get me But when we go
we will go together You're all that I am and everything running through my veins
Always, we will be together
No matter where we go, no matter how deep

I dont want to be alone
let us stay together
in the night
there will come a time
we will be together
in the night

I hear, when you quietly cry notice every time you breath And also
if the fates end it now it doesn't matter 'cause we will share everything after I don't want to be alone
let us stay together
in the night
there will come a time
we will be together
in the night

In the night at sometime
In the night
together with you!

Stop me or i will be
alone in the night

come and stop me or i will be
alone in the night

in the night
there will come a time
we will be together
in the night

you are all that i am and everything running through my veins.....
