I hold your letter
In my frozen hands
The last line was long
As long as it burns
My love carries on
With every word
Another feeling dies
I'm left here in the dark
No memories of you
I close my eyes
It's killing me
We die when love is dead
It's killing me
We lost the dream we never had
The world in silence
Should forever feel alone
'Cause we are gone and we will never overcome
It's over now
The vultures are waiting
For what's left of us
What can we take

It all has no worth
If we lose our trust
They're coming closer
Want you and me
I can feel their claws
Let me go now
Try to break free
It's killing me
We die when love is dead
It's killing me
We lost the dream we never had
The world in silence
Should forever feel alone
'Cause we are gone and we will never overcome
It's over now
The vultures are waiting
Taking the last of you
And the last of me
It's killing me
