Showdown

Do you ever get offended by the way things never change?

Did you ever try religion but you just get by the pain?

There's gonna be a showdown, gonna be a showdown

There's gonna be a showdown comin' 'round right here

Did you ever meet a beggar that was once a rich man's son?

Did you ever see a lady who was gypsy on the run?

There's gonna be a showdown, gonna be a showdown

(instrumental)

Well I know you think I'm crazy & that time just fades away

Well, of this thing I'm certain: see the crossroads every day

There's gonna be a showdown, gonna be a showdown

There's gonna be a showdown, there's gonna be a showdown, yeah
