Distinctions of courage, only cowards sing at night Human blood sure affirms we are noble by our suffering
I don't believe in exceptionalism
I still have hope for the future

Come back home, Johnny
Come back home, Johnny
Come back home from being numb

Without resolve you are self-assured
With eager anticipation you are ready for war
Faith in your fathers and in the family
I hold no regard, I am unapologetic

Come back home, Johnny
Come back home, Johnny
Come back home from being numb

Your war is over
Your war is over
Your war is over, Johnny
