

Tom Jones

"If He Should Ever Leave You"

Visit "If He Should Ever Leave You" on MotoLyrics.com

Your captivating eyes
The clever way
they smile stops him
in his tracks
And add your pretty face you keep him in his place He'd do anything you ask

They've broken the mold
More precious than gold When you're standing there the world disappears

It would be a crime
to ever let you go
He should be inclined
to keep you very close
No one else compares You're a cut above the rest
He'd be such a fool
if he should ever leave you

Be careful what you do he's so in love with you,
you might tear him apart
To watch the way you move, it's obvious
that you were made for breaking hearts
The pout of your lips, those soft fingertips
The curve of your waist, you're perfectly made

It would be a crime
to ever let you go
He should be inclined
to keep you very close
No one else compares
you're a cut above the rest
He'd be such a fool
if he should ever leave you

It would be a crime
to ever let you go
He should be inclined
to keep you very close
No one else compares
you're a cut above the rest
He'd be such a fool
if he should ever

It would be a crime
to ever let you go
He should be inclined
to keep you very close
No one else compares
you're a cut above the rest
He'd be such a fool
if he should ever leave you

Your captivating eyes
The subtle way you smile
sets him in a spin
The subtle way you smile

Visit Tom Jones page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.