(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Step back if you don't want to go

I lead the way, follow me and I promise you will live forever

All soldiers of fortune, down payment might be death
Our blood it is costing

I lead by example in this war with my sword

So if our blood is shed it's mine before yours

But if there's blood shed I'm the first one to spill it

The battlefield's a graveyard and God's gonna fill it

Keep your eye on the prize, we rise up for glory

Those who survive go back tell the story

If I fall in battle, please tell mine for me

And let them all know you were last one who saw me

Let the people know that I died like a leader

I lived the same way so everything is even

If it cost me my life then I spent it on freedom

(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Retreat if you don't want to go

I lead the way, follow me and you will live forever

All soldiers of fortune, down payment might be death

Our blood it is costing

(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Step back if you don't want to go

I lead the way, follow me and you will live forever

All soldiers of fortune, down payment might be death

Our blood it is costing

So kill with stronger will, send enemies the bill

On the road to riches speed bumps are worth a mil

Potholes and ditches might get soldiers killed

Roadblocks, obstacles, get hard to steer

Optical illusions of gold ain't real
Prayer for the roadkill, they got a raw deal
Slayed on the battlefield, slow swinging steel
Chest wide open, so fate now sealed
Scars and memories, awkwardly they heal
We take their territory, make 'em all hail
Shake 'em from their cloud in Heaven, give 'em all Hell
Break 'em off a little something, crush 'em all whole

(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Step back if you don't want to go

I lead the way, follow me and you will live forever

All soldiers of fortune, down payment might be death

Our blood it is costing

(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Step back if you don't want to go

I lead the way, follow me and you will live forever

All soldiers of fortune, down payment might be death

Our blood it is costing

In the game of war both sides will suffer losses

Chariots will be seized, stolen will be horses
Burn down houses, men killed in front of spouses
Many die crucified but there were no crosses
Spilling blood and guts make soldiers nauseous
Always keep composure, when in doubt be cautious
Followed instructions won't face destruction
Faith in our creator, that's our protection
March to victory, forward is direction
Maintain campaign, murderous selection
In the valley of death so many now are resting
History will be made, so I ask you a question

(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Step back if you don't want to go

I lead the way, follow me and you will live forever

All soldiers of fortune, down payment might be death

Our blood it is costing

(Is it yes?)

March forward if you feel that you're blessed

(Is it no?)

Step back if you don't want to go
