I'll walk with you until our souls ain't got no skin
Cause we can't lose, we'll only win, baby I'm in
And when your lucky star ain't shining
I'll be your silver lining

Thick and Thin
Dry your tears when you are crying
Thick and Thin
Be the truth in a world that's lying
Thick and Thin
Give up my last breath if you were dying
I'll stand by you
Thick and thin

I'll dance with you
Until our hearts can't keep the beat
Cause you for me and me for you makes us complete
And when your lucky star ain't shining
I'll be your silver lining

Thick and Thin
Dry your tears when you are crying
Thick and Thin
Be the truth in a world that's lying
Thick and Thin
Give up my last breath if you were dying
I'll stand by you
Thick and Thin
