You've been gone so long you're just a faded memory
But deep down inside you mean so much to me
Every now and then it all comes pouring out A place in time I forgot about
Can I reconcile my Past? and these memories that last I tell myself it's just a dream but it was so much more than it ever seemed

I'm gonna try and get through it's taking a lot though to do Melancholy is my name cause I've only got myself to blame
When will I learn not to crash and burn
Even though it's May it's just another rainy day Hurting real bad I hate being this sad It's just the way I've been my world is caving in

There are some things I just don't want to see
But the truth remains you'll always be a part of me Day and night, night and day and it will always be that way
You're with me all the time and in this heart of mine How much time will it take? If I can't bend then I will surely break

There are some things I just don't want to see
But the truth remains you'll always be a part of me
