You say that you really don't swear
But what you don't know is that I don't care
So tell me how did we get to this place
Where I can't see the look on your face

I don't know why so please stand by
Or let me lie but I can't deny
That I'm confused over you

It's getting late and I can't communicate like this
Or comprehend what we're saying to one another
Cause it's always six and one half the other

Some might say I've gotten lost in your eyes
But what they don't know is that I'm lost in your mind
Tell me where did this all come from
I'm missing it and feeling sorta dumb

I don't know why so please stand by
Or let me lie but I can't deny
That I'm confused over you

It's getting late and I can't communicate like this
Or comprehend what we're saying to one another
Cause it's always six and one half the other

Do you have no clue
Or is it out of the blue
That I'd be writing you
It is true, that I'm writing you
Would have thought by now
We could have figured this out
Please tell me how and I'll try it out
Before you pout, I doubt
That I'm confused over you

It's getting late and I can't communicate like this
Or comprehend what we're saying to one another
Cause it's always six and one half the other
