They tell me this world will end
In blood and tears
I lie awake each night and count the ways
I'd like to die
It's all a sense of time
Before the end engulfs this world
I lie to myself
About the way I live my life
They tell me they own me
Hallways of the Always
Ghosts walk through empty graves
I get blown away
I can see your dreams of suicide
Shining in your eyes
I can see the pain reflected in your eyes
Conflict in your eyes
Lost in decay
I feel lost somehow
I need to feel the pain
I need to know
I see the way
To secrets locked inside
