"The Divide"

Visit "The Divide" on MotoLyrics.com

The city sleeps beneath stars
Night time swallows me in shadows
Sullen nights trapped beneath the wheel
Phantoms walk inside my room
They speak to me
Speak to me
Subtle shades lost on a callous mind
Speak to me
Shadow webs across the sky
I can see the stars collide
Obsessions with forgotten stars
Obsessions speak to me
They speak to me
It calls to me
Behold the black sun rise
Behold the black sun rise
I'm wide awake
Wide awake
Wide awake
