Verse 1

I just want to know what I f@ck, -'s right
But all my black and white got melted into gray and faded
I just want a love that I f@ck, -'s right
But every time I think I know, I have a revelation

Oh

Chorus

I am learning this life
And I am daring to try
I can f@ck, -'t keep you together
But I f@ck, -'ll try

Verse 2

Yeah life, oh, it isn't always bright
But twists and turns and curves until it lets you learn to ride
You are never what you sing and I f@ck, -'m reminded constantly of how your love has made me
And it f@ck, -'s pulling me back to you
It f@ck, -'s pulling me back
It f@ck, -'s pulling me back to you

(Repeat Chorus x3)

But I f@ck, -'ll try (x3)
