(Deep in the heart of Ann)

I know now a man can't own a woman but I came as close as anybody can

For once there was nothing but worship for me deep in the heart of Ann

If you throw away one stone at a time in time

You can level a mountain with your bare hands

And I tore down a mountain of love just for me deep in the heart of Ann

But I know someday no matter how long it may be

Ann will forgive me if she can and she can

Oh there still got to be a small part of me deep in the heart of Ann

Yes there still got to be a small part of me deep in the heart of Ann
