Dear mama I'm coming home tomorrow
If you don't mind would you meet me at the train Dear mama my wandering days are over and it's so good to be coming home again Dear mama we'll walk the fields together
And through the valley we'll stroll hand in hand And I just can't wait to see you and touch the soil of home so clean
But mama I'm not the boy I used to be For I've been gone away too long I've done everything that's wrong
But I think I've finally found myself at last
And just you wait and see another chance is all I need Oh but mama I'm not the boy I used to be

For you see mama I've spent some time in prison
For a crime that's so bad I'm just too ashamed to tell And when you meet me there tomorrow don't be surprised at what you'll see Oh mama I'm not the boy I used to be For I've been gone away too long...
