Well darling today I came back to the town where we used to live and love together With a love that I thought would always last but now it's gone forever Oh I see a million memories but there's no love left to be found
I hope my mind don't break while I take a little walk through Memory Town Mem'ry Town with the smell of her perfume still in the air
As I dream of yesterday I see her everywhere
I talk to friends that we knew they say she's happy now
I hope I don't see you while passing through this place called Mem'ry Town [ac.guitar]
Mem'ry Town with the smell of her perfume...
I hope I don't see you while passing through this place
called Mem'ry Town
