Up in the morning out on my job and I work like a devil for my pay
Oh that lucky old sun ain't got nothing to do but roll around heaven all day
I fuss with my woman and I toil with my kids
And I work till I'm wrinkled and gray
Oh that lucky old sun ain't got nothing to do but roll
around heaven all day
Oh Lord above can't you see that I'm pinin' teardrops're streamin' from my eyes Tossing down my cloud with that silvery linin' and lift me to paradise Show me that river and take me across wash all my troubles away
Oh that lucky old sun ain't got nothing to do but roll
around heaven all day
Oh that lucky old sun ain't got nothing to do but roll
around heaven all day
