Roll over in bed and clutch a pillow in my arms that's where my baby used to be She'd snuggle close I keep her safe and warm that's where my baby used to be That's where my baby used to be that's where my baby used to be Everywhere I turn I find the memory that's where my baby used to be

Across the kitchen table there's an empty chair that's where my baby used to be
It almost seems I still can see her there that's where my baby used to be That's where my baby used to be...
[ guitar ]
I walk down the street with just a shadow by my side
That's where my baby used to be My arms are so empty now and I'm just satisfied that's where my baby used to be
That's where my baby used to be...
That's where my baby used to be
