I promised you the world before we were marrying now maybe you think I let you down The address where we live you're ashamed to give to our old friends in town
It hurts when you cry and you won't tell me why Are you sure you want to see it through Then baby stand by me and soon you're gonna see our hopes and dreams come true We're climbing up up higher we're gonna set the world on fire
Today we may be down but tomorrow We're climbing up up up to the top of this town to the top of this town

Those bargain store dresses you can give 'em to your sider
You won't need them anymore
You can stop saving stamps and that old broken lamp you can throw it out the door In your arms I'm a king I can do anything if you love me as much as I love you Then baby stand by me and soo you're gonna see our
hopes and dreams come true
We're climbing up up higher...
