No one can understand
Our love affair
But still our hearts demand
This love affair

They say we're much too young
But we don't care
For this is our love affair

No matter what they say
My love is you
So, darling, come what may
Please love me too

Then no else can say
What we should do
For this our love affair

Our love affair is our concern
Ours, the only chance to take
For we alone must live and learn
Ours, the only hearts to break

They say young hearts
That sing a lover's song
Should be prepared to bring
Their tears along

But no one has the right
To say we're wrong
For this our love affair

For we alone must live and learn
Ours, the only hearts to break

They say young hearts
That sing a lover's song
Should be prepared to bring
Their tears along

But no one has the right
To say we're wrong

For this our love affair
