There was a black widow spider
Big bad wolf sat down beside her
"Hey now, what's up my little ladybug?
Can I lie here by your shiny web?"

"Yes sir, my pleasure, please
You put me at ease on the lonely road
Take, take my time
The scenery is fine and we belong"

Big bad wolf to black widow spider
"One hundred proof, rubber souls on fire
I've gotta go now, I have no attention
No way home and no direction"

"Please, don't go yet
We have just met on the lonely road
Wait, we'll take our time
We'll be just fine where we belong"

Please, don't go yet
We have just met on the lonely road
Wait, we'll take our time
The scenery is fine and we belong
