I can fall in love again
I can feel the curse you cast is over
No more, no more Casa Nova
Hip hip hurray, oh Hallelujah

I haven't changed much in these ten years
I hit my head up against the wall
Of my same ol' fears, my same ol' fears
My same ol' tears, I'm breaking mirrors

I know myself again
I remember what is good about me
If I let it out of hiding

My enemy, proven to keep me down
Love as a memory of kindness
And cruelty and cruelty
And honesty and true beauty

I can fall in love again
I can feel the curse I cast is over
No more no more Casa Nova
Hip hip hurray, oh, Supernova
Supernova, Supernova, Four-Leaf Clover
