My inhibition
Your indifference
Are almost finished
I wait until the end

In the end you say nothing
Can't lend a hand
You must see me suffering
Or is the distance deeper than that?

Deeper than that
Is my love for you
Even if it never gets back to you

Back to the drawing board
Picture yourself in a new light
What's all that suffering for?
I'm left, you're right
You're always right

After the hurricane
When nobody cared or came
Where was our consciousness
Lost in some other interest in the end

My inhibition
Your indifference
Are almost finished
Why wait until the end

You say nothing
Can't lift a finger
Running on empty
You have no love to give her

Are we so different?
Evolution made us so
I'm all relationship
You're on your own

I'm on my own
With my love for you

Even if it never gets back to you

Rocket ship, leaving the atmosphere

One last breath of earthly fear

Never fear, never fear

Hush now, my dear
