Cry, bye-bye
Baby, bye an bye
It's by and by you
My baby won't you
Bye an bye
Cry-i-i, bye n' bye
Now baby won't you
Bye an bye

Does that good book tell you
Reap just what you sow?
The good book tell you
Baby, reap just what you know
Thou reap enough
So baby reap it, bye and bye

Well, I'm goin' away
Won't be back 'till fall
I'm goin' away, Lord
Baby, won't be back 'till fall
If I meet my good gal
Someday we won't be back a'tol

Does the good book tell you
Reap just what you sow?
A good book tell you
Baby, reap just what you sow
Thou reap enough
Oh baby reap it, bye an bye

Well, they's two trains runnin'
Runnin' side by side
There two trains runnin'
Now baby, runnin' side by side
You've got my woman
Baby, know you're satisfied.
