Sorry to hear she wasn't all she seemed, that she made a fool of you

But while you were crying, you made a fool of me

Sorry to see how blind someone can be, 'cos she never cared at all

Yet without even trying, you made a fool of me

Chorus:

There is no way for me to hide the pain inside, a love that fantasy kept alive

I seek the truth but cannot find, I need a way to justify

Why you made a fool of me

Sorry to know, love was the perfect crime, caring a waste of time

Chorus

(Instrumental break)

Sorry to know, love was the perfect crime, caring a waste of time

Without even trying, you made a fool of me
