You're free
That's the way
That you want to be
Just forget your promise to me
I see that we can
Just be friends, dear

Free from the
Little things I do
That weary you of me
That's the way it ends, dear
You're free

Now you're just
As free as the breeze
Hope you'll find somebody
Who'll please you, dear
I mean it so sincerely

Free, free to go your way
But let me say
You're always free
To come back to me

Yes, you're free
Now you're just
As free as the breeze
Hope you'll find somebody
Who'll please you, dear
I mean it so sincerely

Free, free to go your way
But let me say
You're always free
To come back to me
