Heartless
How can you be so heartless?
So thoughtless of me
And heartless

You've cheated and lied
You couldn't be true
No, not if you tried
You're heartless

[CHORUS]
Cold as the rain and heartless
And if you remain
So heartless
One night I'll be gone
And you'll awake
With one heart left to break

I suppose that roses
Have to have a thorn
That's how heaven made them
That's how they were born

It's the same with you dear
Smiling with that air of sweetness
Fickle eyes that glow
So when you're oh, so heartless

[Repeat CHORUS]

[BRIDGE]

Heartless,

[Repeat CHORUS]

With one less heart to break...
One less heart to break.
