"Lying Love"

I know you haven't said goodbye
And I know I'm the one you hide

I'll stay on my own
This isn't what I need
You can find me when
You're ready to come clean

Ooh - You are the one I wake to
The one I break to enough
Can't go on with your lying love
What I give is real, what I give is pure
How should I feel when I'm so sure
I'd be a fool to care about you
Anymore

Hinted at my thoughts that night
Like a splinter in your mind

Why do I let you lead me on
Try to make it right but it's so wrong
You know what I need to hear
But you just take what you want
And keep your silence, Dear
