"Time Changes Everything"

There was a time when I thought of no other and we sang our own love's refrain
Our hearts beat as one while we had our fun but time changes everything
When you left me my poor heart was broken our romance seemed all in vain I guess it was true for me and for you but time changes everything
[guitar]
You can change the words to an old song rearrange it and make it swing I thought nothing could stop me from loving you but
time changes everything
So goodluck to you may God bless you you'll go your way and I will go mine I won't say that I will love again cause time changes
everything

sang our own love's refrain
Our hearts beat as one while we had our fun but time
changes everything
[fiddle - piano - guitar - mandolin]
There was a time when I thought of no other...
