I feel your gentle fingers reaching out to search the pockets of my mind
I watch your eyes to see what they will say to all the need you're gonna find Will I be welcome when I reach for you Will you grow soft and say you want me too
Baby walk unashamed with me out into the night Don't be afraid to feel anything it's all right Love is waiting there for us to take let's take it now I'll show you how
Pa pa pa pa pa pa...
Baby walk unashamed with me...
Pa pa pa pa pa pa...
