I'll try harder - more than ever before
Slowly I've started to trust my heart so much more Now I know that I'm wiser I've learnt a lot from this game
Clearly I see that all we have been through has just made us stronger

I know, I know, it will turn out just fine
Standing by you, is a promise I'll keep, and I know, I know, we will stumble and fall
Problems are good, in the end they feel so small

Ooh oh

Broken hearted made it all feel untrue
Lies detected, made such a distance to you And I know that all over, yeah, we've learnt a lot from that change
Clearly I see that all of this things they have just made us stronger

I know, I know, it will turn out just fine
Standing by you is a promise I'll keep, and
I know, I know, we will stumble and fall
Problems are good, in the end they feel so small

And I never wanna see us like that again
And I never want to just be a friend
I can't go on all alone, it's wrong simply wrong Keep hoping on

I know, I know, it will turn out just fine (Turn out just fine)
Standing by you is a promise I'll keep, and I know, I know, we will stumble and fall (Stumble and fall)
Problems are good ? in the end they feel so small

I know, I know (I know, I know, will turn out just fine)
Standing by you (is a promise I'll keep, and)
I know, I know (I know, I know, will turn out just fine)

Problems are good (Ooh ooh)

Ah la, ah ah
