Why would you ask me
Why would you wanna kiss me
And fly away

The distance between us
It's complicated
I still believe you asked me to stay

But you had been hurt by love
You didn't care to feel that much
So I lied

I'll get myself togheter
Though I'm not quite over you
You broke into my heart
And stole it forever

Each falls has left me stranded
But I swim on back to sure
If someone isn't in love
You cant make them love you more

The comfort of strangers
Thats for a moment
Then it turns to where you live

A welcome distraction
Can't hear
These walls are such a

Now my friends that all
That's enough for me
No

I'll get myself togheter
Though I'm not quite over you
You broke into my heart
And stole it forever

Each falls has left me stranded
But I swim on back to sure

If someone isn't in love
You cant make them love you more

Our good days and bad days
But thinking of love
Ain't not the same as it sold

But I'll get myself togheter
Though I'm not quite over you
You broke into my heart
And stole it forever

Each falls has left me stranded
But I swim on back to sure
If someone isn't in love
You cant make them love

I'll get myself togheter
Though I'm not quite over you
You broke into my heart
And stole it forever

Each falls has left me stranded
You cant make them love you more
