Let's not give it all up so easily
Too much invested to stop where we are Gonna bring out so much misery
If we just walk away and let it be

Let's finish up what we started
And do some soul searchin', talking just me and you, we'll see it though
Locked in a room
Ain't coming out 'till we finish up what we started

Neither one of us will admit we're wrong
Standing in our way is foolish pride
We have let this go on way too long
Let's tell each other to be strong

Lets finish up what we started
Do some soul searchin', talking
just me and you, we'll see it though
Locked in a room
Ain't coming out 'till we finish up what we started

We're almost there
When we, suddenly stop trying.
Takes a lot of give and take and a little bit of crying, to get us there

So lets finish up what we started
And do some soul searchin', talking
just me and you, we'll see it though
Locked in a room
Ain't coming out 'till we finish up what we started

Let's finish up
And do some soul searchin', talking
Just me and you, we'll see it though
Locked in a room
Ain't coming out 'till we finish up what we started
