One year and seven weeks since you
Apoke you're name, and -- my knees
Now I, gotta learn how to speak
And maybe next time we meet
And I won't run and hide
And I might even try
To tell you how I feel inside.

It might be a longshot, got me thinking so what
Finally I know what, I need to do
You simply amaze me, hope you don't think I'm crazy
I've been thinking lately, about me and you
If only I'd knew how to make this dream come true

Twenty two hours, and sixteen seconds since--- I, woke up must've satten a record now I'm Afraid to go back to sleep
I might not catch the same same dream
So I'm staying awake, as long as it may take for me to figure out a way

It might be a longshot, got me thinking so what
Finally I know what, I need to do
You simply amaze me, hope you don't think I'm crazy
I've been thinking lately, about me and you
If only I'd knew how to make this dream come true

Don't wanna waste any time anymore
'Cause I'm in too deep, like never before
So lost in the thought of me and you
If I only knew, how dreams come true, yeah.

It might be a longshot, got me thinking so what
Finally I know what, I need to do
You simply amaze me, hope you don't think I'm crazy
I've been thinking lately, about me and you
If only I'd knew how to make this dream come true
