Always on time, never too late
Gone for a while, but you're always worth the wait
Your presence makes colours change
I'm happy you're finally back again

After summer, must come fall
Winter's though, and then comes you and
Raindrops bounce back to the sky
Sun goes down, and then you rise
I'm living my dream.
So I'm dreaming about life

Temperature's rising with your warm embrace
I'm soaking up every inch of your face
My worry seem to disappear
Everytime you come near
Everytime you come near

After summer, must come fall
Winter's though, and then comes you and
Raindrops bounce back to the sky
Sun goes down, and then you rise
I'm living my dream.
So I'm dreaming about life

The time has come for you to leave
I wish that you could stay right here
But lucky for me I know that you
Will be back next year

When...
Raindrops bounce back to the sky
Sun goes down, and then you rise
I'm living my dream.
So I'm dreaming about life

I'm dreaming about
Life
