I don't believe it, what a nerve
You or her, don't know who is worse
Is this what you do, you're way to heal
Is this you're way to get back at me
'Cause I lost you, but never knew I'd loose her too

Though it's true that we were though
How could you
How do you sleep at night
And I lied when I said I'm still fine 'cuz
Though we are though
Boy how could you

When i left you, I felt so bad
Cause being alone was driving you mad
And I could see you, from across the street
In you're room crying yourself to sleep
But now I see, how you deserved it then
My friend

Though it's true that we were though
How could you
How do you sleep at night
And I lied when I said I'm still fine 'cuz
Though we are though
Boy how could you
Boy how could you

Of all things that I once cared about
You're the one I'm most glad to get out
But now I see how you deserved it then
My friend

Though it's true that we were though
How could you
How do you sleep at night
And I lied when I said I'm still fine 'cuz
Though we are though

It is true that we were though
How could you

How do you sleep at night
And I lied when I said I'm still fine 'cuz
Though we are through
Boy how could you
Boy how could you
