Mind aching heart breaking nothing much to lose
Until I saw you
I was the lonely one they were lonely days

Shook me right out of my paranoid mind
Now I'm holding on to you
Holding on to you
Im holding on to you
I need to hold with you
I need to hold with you you feel so nice
And when you hold me too, ooh babe

Earth quaking love making its easy when its new
I just know its best when I am holding on to you
It felt like as though my head was blown away
Everything feels alright now
Holding on to you
Holding on to you
I'm holding on to you
I need to, with you
I need to hold with you
I need to hold with you
Just like its the first time
I'm holding on to your love I must try to keep it
Holding on to you love this time we'll make it Doo doo doo doo doo doo yeh this time we'll make it

Do you feel the strength you get from love
Do you know the strength I get from your love

I need to steal a little bit of a hold with my baby and love her
I need to steal a little bit of a hold and crush her like the first time
I'll be holding on to you
