Melissa Tones/A.J.Lester
Born without a choice
Adopted to a family
Had to search for the missing link...that's me
It must have been strange in your world upside down Wondering why we're missing
Missing
You wonder when you see him wonder what he looks like
Have you seen a picture
Oh yeah
Then you wake up on some curious day
Had to look up some man some man some daddy man
He could be some one to talk to Chase him down look at you look at me
Melissa
We're so much the same now come on take the plane
Oh across the sea and visit anytime

We're I walk the same sidewalks wear the same rain same Doc boots
Me and you our physical likeness just can't help but show
Stone the crows babe swear the same bad words
Down the same sidewalk some things have changed some never do
I'm glad that some things have changed for you
I wonder what she looks like

I'm singing this song for you now
It just might help you to understand the other side of your life
Hey
And though we never knew so much before
This love we have we'll never lose
We're so much the same now I guess
I'll take the blame
Oh its ok!..Melissa
Do you find your life a bit like mine
Glad that you could stay a while and spend some time

Happy too I see a little me in you
Stone the crows babe swear the same bad words
Hey a little news
Somethings have changed some never do
I'm glad that some things have changed for
you
For you Melissa
You found me
