Since the beginning of time man has loved some woman
Some woman that look good to him
She come walking with grass on her feet
Long grass round her hips, and flowers in her hair
Since the beginning of time man has loved a woman
She's everything he ever needs
A deep dark cave along side a beautiful lake
The afternoon sun shining in Her diamonds shone on water
Sunlight in her hair
She's I move into my warm hands
She's everything Amazon woman to me
Like a homing pigeon when you set her free
Ooh hoo and she fly
She's everything that I want her to be
She
She Fly
Since the beginning of time man has loved some
woman
Some woman that look good to him
For half the cave she's I proudly sweep
Children at her feet she's I finger paint the walls
Since the beginning of time man has loved a woman
She's everything he ever needs
She's I make a home a beautiful place
Reflections of a world in kind reflections of a beautiful mind
Ooh hoo and she fly
She's everything that I want her to be.
She's she fly
And diamonds shine on water sunlight in her hair
She's I move into my warm hands
She sees everything that I want her to be she Ooh hoo she fly
Ooh hoo
She Fly
