And we don't stop, no ma, what's the problem?
Always complainin' when there's chick are starvin'
What type of game is this, I used to support you
I thought you'd appreciate some of the things that I bought you

Shoes from Milan, Louis Vuitton
Animals on back and jewels on your arm
Mami, it's nothin' to make moves with a Don
Loon the Big Fish, leave them fools in the pond

Just when I made up my mind
I thought but you would allow
You're hard to trust, you owe me
What makes you wanna call now?

Can you try to tell me
What made you choose her as your friend?
(You chose a perfect friend, baby)
Just when I think you've given up
It's you again

All I can say
Take away my lonely one
Nothin' else can be done
(So hit the freeway)
I don't ever wanna see you again

You didn't do me right, so
So long, goodbye, goodbye
(So hit the freeway)
Maybe in some other life, I'll see you again

I would have bet the Dow Jones
If men compared to out of the fun, yeah
Imagine how crushing it was
When you say I was not the one
(I didn't mean it, girl, I'm sorry 'bout that)

My friends say I was in denial
Defendin' you as a perfect friend
(Ya, you know I like you)

Now no one knows how crazy love
I'll ask you again

All I can say
Take away my lonely one
(Take away)
Nothin' else can be done
(So hit the freeway)
I don't ever wanna see you again
(Sing it, girl)

You didn't do me right, so
So long, goodbye, goodbye
(So hit the freeway)
Maybe in some other life, I will see you again
(Bridge)

Now that you've left me crazy, you upset me
You only could have kept me
But baby, you didn't get me home
To finally discover, explorin' covers
World as we know it, but you had to go and blow it

Damn, it's been so long since I
Heard your voice last summer
To be honest, it made me smile
When I see your number
(Hey baby, you know I miss you)

Baby, tell me what I should've been
Instead of being your friend?
(You know why)
Maybe some day in your dreams, my love
You could say, "Damn, it's you again"

Now all I can say
Take away my lonely one
(Take away)
Nothin' else can be done
(So hit the freeway)
I don't ever wanna see you again
(Don't wanna see you again)

You didn't do me right, so
So long, goodbye, goodbye
(So hit the freeway)
Maybe in some other life, I'll see you again
