Verse 1

I was so dumb and naive
To believe you give me these thing
But it backfire I use to believe you and me
Now it seem like you another person Who I gave my heart to
I just can't believe it
What I went through with you, for you
Now it seem you don't want me anymore
You don't feel that I gave enough and betrayed you gone
When you know what going on
You don't want me in your life
It a shame that you look another way not looking at me anymore (you looking at somebody ese who gonna to do you the same)
It a shame I don't feel this way

B-section

I should've know better a long time ago
The love that you shown as gone out the window (not

Give me time see what I should do
