Verse 1

What your girl
I know you seen her
Do she know who she messing with Cause man
You see is mine
Cause mom didn't rise no fool
You better tell her
If she didn't know, if she don't know somebody better tell her
I hold the title

Chorus

I hold the title
I know I look right
She looking tore up
From up (tryna to get at man)
Like she some need rest
From my mind I hold the title
I know he love me about every night
He know I hold the title x2

I hold the title, I hold the title, I hold the title, I hold the title x2

I hold the title x5

I can't she be mine
She been over to our house
I don't want to say it when you interact such thing
I don't won't do you like that, every time situation come up I I I hold the title, cause I don't nothing come to up between you and me see I hold the title

I hold the title she got nothing do with it
If you must, I like this way
She not getting in our way
Cause I hold the title
For you
Cause mom didn't rise no fool
Cause man

You see is mine
Can't touch
Even if you do
He already had me
Nothing you can't about it
Cause I hold the tile for him

Pre chorus
What your girl
I know you seen her (aint no surprise you do like this)
Do she know who she messing with you better tell her Better tell her
cause man
You see is mine
Moma didn't rise no fool
If she didn't know, if she don't know
Somebody better tell her
I hold the title
To your house
To your children
She better fall back
If you see me with my man
He probably with me
Cause I hold the title
I hold the title
