They see me walking through the mall with my man
Tryna get at me every which way they can
They see this zic rock shining on my hand
Waving and hollering like they really got a chance
All up on me wanna conversation
Sending diamonds, flowers over invitation
But the ring that I'm wearing is forever
Don't need to dream we gon' always be together

So put it in the air
And let 'em see you glad
I got this from my man
And he don't wanna share
When they call me they can't find me
They know I'm taken I ain't lying
My ring's too heavy, My ring's too heavy
My ring's too heavy you can't get with me
I know you want it you can't have it
My main is major and I'm bragging
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave

I'll be out with my girls on the weekend
Put my hands up so everyone can see is Got nobody's love cleaning He know how to pleasing
Now my heart gets just worked up when I'm wearing it
Put it in my bag cause the carrots are ridiculous
So you should know that he's got my heart forever
Don't need to dream we gon' always be together

So put it in the air
And let 'em see you glad
I got this from my man
And he don't wanna share
When they call me they can't find me
They know I'm taken I ain't lying
My ring's too heavy, My ring's too heavy
My ring's too heavy you can't get with me
I know you want it you can't have it
My man is major and I'm bragging

So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave

So put it in the air and let 'em see you glad
I got this from my man and he don't wanna share
So put it in the air and let 'em see you glad
I got this from my man and he don't wanna share
So put it in the air and let 'em see you glad
I got this from my man and he don't wanna share
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave

When they call me they can't find me
They know I'm taken I ain't lying
My ring's too heavy, My ring's too heavy

So put it in the air and let 'em see you glad
I got this from my man and he don't wanna share
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
