They see me walking through the mall with my man
Trynna get at him in each way they can
They see this zic rock shining on my hand
Waving and holl'ing like they really got a chance
All up on him wanna conversations
Sending diamonds flowers opening invitations
But this ring that I'm wearing is for ever
Don't need to dream we gon' always be together

So put it in the air and let 'em see that
I got this from my man and he don't wanna share
When they call him they can't find him
They know his taken I ain't lying
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
I know you want him you can't have him
My man is major and I'm bragging
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave

I'll be out with my girls on the weekend
I put my hands up so lovers hate to see it
I got blinded by this â€¦.
Running home he know how to please and
Now my arm gets this worked up when I'm wearing it
Put it in my bank cause this carats are ridiculous
So you should know that he has my heart forever
Don't need to dream we gon't always be together

So put it in the air and let 'em see that
I got this from my man and he don't wanna share
When they call him they can't find him
They know his taken I ain't lying
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
I know you want him you can't have him
My man is major and I'm bragging
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave

So put it in the air and let 'em see that

I got this from my man now and he don't wanna share
My ring's too heavy, my ring's too heavy, my ring's too
heavy
You can't get with me
So put it in the air and let 'em see that
I got this from my man now and he don't wanna share
My ring's too heavy, my ring's too heavy, my ring's too
heavy
You can't get with me

When they call him they can't find him
They know his taken I ain't lying
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
I know you want him you can't have him
My man is major and I'm bragging
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
So you gon' get the wave, the wave, the wave
Yeah!
