I don't have a lot to say
I'm short on my words today
But either way you should know
You won't get away too easy this time

You've got another thing coming
If you think you're coming over tonight
It's never gonna be fun
When you just try too hard to make it right

Take me down
Bring me down with you
You know what to do
Come on baby, bring me down
Well we can run away, nothing left to say

But I want you too
Know that I need you now
I know that nothing will bring us down

Well I don't mind you under my skin
Watch life slip out and love sink in
You'll never know how much I have to show
With time you'll learn to let it go

You've got another thing coming
If you think you're coming over tonight
It's never gonna be fun
When you just try too hard to make it right

Take me down
Bring me down with you
You know what to do
Come on baby, bring me down
Well we can run away, nothing left to say

But I want you too
Know that I need you now
I know that nothing will bring us down

So why won't you take me down?

Bring me down with you
You know what to do
Come on baby, bring me down
Well we can run away, nothing left to say

But I want you too
Know that I need you now
I know that nothing will bring us down
