I met a man at the gates a place of suffering
Eyes of night and dry humor
Who do you trust now?
Who do you love?
I'm here to set things right
He takes another drag it keeps him going
I'm here for no one
Sometimes the cancer brings out the man in me
If you need me to be close and you know I'm worlds
away
Close your eyes
You have gently touched my heart and I fight until the end
Close your eyes
Your wings are mine
Take my hand and in the water you descend
Your wings are mine
And I don't understand the concept of the end
If you need me to be close and you know I'm worlds
Close your eyes I fight until the end
Your love shows me the way
I followed you into a white room
This is where it begins
I followed you into a white room
And found you dead
If you need me to be close and you know I'm worlds
Close your eyes
end
Close your eyes
Darkness slowly rises
I feel time slowly down as I watch you float away
I feel time slowly down as I watch you float away
Angel of death into human
Angel of death into human
