well you walk into my room lookin' all innocent and lost with your sleazy dress barely coverin' up all the parts that you know that i want you talk about the past and ask me how i'm gettin' on yes you're rememberin' all the good times that we had before you turned up gone and by the way i smile and stare you think i'm maybe goin' for it but do you take me for a fool? i wouldn't touch you with a stick i know what you came here for but i ain't no kid anymore you think i don't know what your game is you think that i'm blind you think i'm fool enough to ever want to play with...? you think i've lost my mind?
well i do
and i'm not
and i don't so it won't matter if you stand here
'til the cows come home so don't you waste your precious time and when that don't work you start in pullin' rabbits out your hat and you're pretty good but we're not amused now would you kindly put them back you drop some names einstein that i once mentioned thinking augustine maybe i'll respond but i've passed thomas mann beyond all of that nonsense

what with the hugo ball arabs droppin' bombs did you really think j. that you could robert trick me oppenheimer just by memorizing names? gene ament oh you're a spicy little number pope peter pigmouth but your mind's between your legs

to ever want to play with...?
'til these cattle go home no don't you waste my precious time i'm not buyin'

i ain't interested
go away
